JAILED ON WIFE'S CHARGE,

THEN MRS. RAUCHFUSS RELENTED AND FREED THE DOCTOR.

Both Had Trouble Stories to Tell the Peliceman Whom Mrs. Rauchfuss Had Called-He Threw Away the Wedding Ring and Hit Her With a Cane, She Says

Dr. George E. Rauchfuss, a physician with an office at 260 West 125th street, was arrested last night at his residence at 189 Claremont avenue on the complaint of his oride of two months.

've been a Rough Rider," said the doctor sadly in the West 125th street station, "and I've got a lot of experience while running around the world and have been up against it a bit, but excuse me from women.

Mrs. Rauchfuss, who told Sergt. Maher last night that she and her young husband had been served with a dispossess notice because of their many oral troubles since their marriage, early in June, telephoned to Police Headquarters for help last night shortly after she returned to her home, at 10 o'clock. When Policeman Metz arrived on the battlefield both sides of the Rauchfuss house had troubles to tell him.

Dr. Rauchfuss said that when he left home vesterday morning he had made an appointment to meet his wife at a dentist's office in West Forty-second street at 4 o'clock in the afternoon. The doctor said Mrs. Rauchfuss had failed to keep the appointment and that he had been compelled o go home to cook his own dinner.

Mrs. Rauchfuss took up the tale at that point and told her troubles to the policeman. Her husband, she said, had attacked her with a cane, had then pulled off her wedding ring and thrown it out into a vacant lot adjoining the Rauchfuse house. Furthermore, Mrs. Rauchfuss said, she has already instituted divorce proceedings and although the papers have been filed she has continued to live with the doctor.

Also—this from the downtrod husband—when he asked his wife where she had been all last evening he says she told him it was none of his goldinged business, or words to that effect.

All the Bauchfussers went over to the West 125th street station, towed by Policeman Metz. On the wife's complaint the dector was locked up in a cell. This part of the proceeding had evidently not been shargained for by the bride, because when she saw the station doors close she decided that things were going too far and that she wanted her doctor back.

"Well, why did you call for the police if you don't want your husband locked up?" asked Sergt. Maher.

"Oh, I merely wanted to scare him," asked Sergt. Maher.

"Oh, I merely wanted to scare him," answered the tearful bride.

"Well, if you think it would help any," suggested the sergeant, I'll send out for a false face with horns at ached and put it on and go back to his cell and scare the dickens out of him. But maybe I'd be too late now," continued the sergeant thoughtfully. "Maybe the rats have eaten him up long before this."

This terrifying prospect was too much for the loving bride, who all but knelt to the sergeant now to ask that her husband be freed from the fearful clutches of the law. As the complaint had been withdrawn, the freed from the fearful clutches of the law. As the complaint had been withdrawn, the doctor was brought from the cell.

"Will you get me back that ring you threw away?" demanded the bride with returning fire as she saw her husband free again.

"Well, I'll make a try," answered the husband. "But see here," the husband demanded, turning toward the desk "if I pay for a ring for my wife isn't it my property as much as it is her's? And I want to say right here that a woman is the limit."

erty as much as it is her's? And I want to say right here that a woman is the limit." Then the pair left arm in arm.

Dr. Rauchfuss had troubles around the West 125th street station even before he took unto himself a wife. On September 4 last, while he was taking an evening stroll with a young woman he got into trouble with a young woman he got into trouble with two small boy bioyolists at the corner of Seventh avenue and 116th street who, he said, had run into him. Dr. Rauchfuss grabbed the boys to await the arrival of a policeman. Patrolman Butler finally hove in sight and found that a crowd of the young bicyclists' friends were among those presbicyclists' friends were among those ent and that they were tearing up large chunks of the real estate of the neighbor-hood and putting it all over the doctor.

Butler, the doctor and the bicyclists went to the station amid a rain of mud and small stones. When the doctor had made his complaint he found it advisable to remain within the strong walls of the station for almost an hour before venturing out on 125th street again. Only when the small boy army of besiegers had retired for the greater excitement of following a fire engine as the siege raised.
But even at that Dr. Rauchfuse says that

L. LA MONTAGNE HURT. Thrown From Pony in Newport Polo Match -Only a Little Injured.

NEWPORT, R. I., Aug. 25.—The finals in the junior polo championship were played this afternoon on the field of the Westchester Polo Club. The Bryn Mawr Freebooters defeated the Rockaway team by a score of 13 to 81/2. Owing to the default of Squadron A there was but one match in this series. and while the game started out with a rush, interest in it lagged at the close of the second period on account of an accident to L. La Montagne of the Rockaway team.

For the first period the game, was close and exciting, each team scoring six goals. As the second period was about to close La Montagne, who had been doing brilliant work for his team, was thrown from his peny, the horse scumbling and running completely over the rider. La Montagne landed on his head. Time was called and he was taken to the clubhouse badly dayed. Dr. Flint was sent for, and in the meantime after a wait of about half an hour, he was taken to the residence of Mr. Paul Rainey in an automobile.

After this the game was slow. Mr. Rosengarten drop ped out of the game to even up the sides. In the third period. Bryn Mawr did all the scoring, adding four goals, while in the last period each team secred three goals. Huhn distinguished himself, while Conover was the shining light for Bealesan

Dr. Flint said to-night that Mr. La Montagne was not seriously injured, suffering merely a slight concussion, and needed only absolute rest. He still is with Mr. Rainey.

THREAT OF ANOTHER RACE WAR. Whites and Blacks Again Armed and Ready for Trouble in Delaware.

LAUREL, Del., Aug. 25.-Two weeks ago to-night Claude Brown, a young negro, made a murderous assault upon Medford Phillips, a liveryman.
This started a race riot which put three whites and a score of negroes under the care of physicians.

All last week mob violence continued and everal houses of negroes were wrecked and the occupants beaten. Things had quieted down, when to-day Brown was brought here from Baltimore, where he captured yesterday. not that they threaten to lynch the negro, not is heartly guarded. If the attempt is the there will be much bloodshed. Ear since the terry season this county has been overrun with negrous of the lowest type, who think nothing of insulting and is bing white women from the sizewalks. Both whites and blacks are heavily arned to-night and it needs only the smallest spark to start trouble.

Real estate is down at $1,515,039,680 full value, or $308,007,932 assessed value. The gain over last year's figures is $37,467,195 or about 3 per cent. WOMEN FIGHT ON ROOF.

The Burke-Gallagher Feud Leads to a Slash With a Knife and an Arrest.

Mrs. Mary Burke, a widow who lives at 445 West Twenty-eighth street, walked into the West Thirty-seventh street police station last night to show Capt. Hogan a knife slash on the left arm and shoulder eight inches long, which, she says, she received in a fight with Margaret Gallagher who owns to thirty-eight summers, and who also lives at the Twenty-eighth street address. The fight, Mrs. Burke says, took place on the roof of their tenement yester-day aftenoon because Miss Gallagher said that Mrs. Burke was hanging clothes on the

There was an argument over the proprieties and Mrs. Burke says she came out of the lofty battle with the eight inch slash. She bound it up herself and had no intention of calling in the police in a matter of a purely domestic character until last night, when the wound began to bleed again, and she decided to make a prisoner an hour later. Margaret Gallagher told the sergeant that her name was Margaret Burke, but Mrs Burke denied this with fervor. Margaret Gallagher, or Burke, in the meantime denied that she had done the slashing.

Detective McIver says that when Mrs. Burke became a widow four years ago it was brought about through a blow from a baseball bat dealt to Burke by William Coyne, and that Coyne, immediately after the murder, stretched a wire across West Sixteenth street, where the Burkes then lived, and proudly hung the bat that had ended Burke's life on the wire. McIver secured the bat as evidence and later secured Coyne. The murder trial was pending from court to court for almost a year and finally Coyne beat the courts," so McIver puts it, and was acquitted.

YACHTS GO IN RECORD TIME. Good Whole Sail Breeze for Gravesend

Bay Championship Series. In a good whole sail breeze from the east, which sent the yachts flying over the course in record time, the third race to count in the Gravesend Bay Yacht Racing Association's championship series was decided yesterday afternoon off the Brooklyn Yacht Club's station at Bath Beach. A large field started, it being divided into six classes, of which three were racing for championship points.
On corrected time Class P went to the yawi Sakana, the property of the Haviland brothers, which defeated F. J. Havens's sloop Jig Step, 2 minutes and 48 seconds. Class Q other championship division, Class S, was won by A. Platt's Gamma. Richard Rumwon by A. Platt's Gamma. Richard Rum-mell's Careless was first of the Q special boats to finish, and W. L. Sweet's boats led four of the Bensonhurst dories home. The catboat Hester won the last division of the regatta. Class P sailed course No. 8 of the Graveser-

Class P sailed course No. 8 of the Graveserd Bay association. It was twice around marks off Bensonhurst. Fort Hamilton, Buoy No. 11 and Sea Gate. The marks were left to pot and the racers had a voyage that was in the aggregate twelve nautical miles. The wind was strong and from the east, which gave the yachts a reach, run, reach and beat. The boats all finished safely, with the exception of Cygnet, which carried away her topmast in the first round.

The other classes sailed course No. 2, which was the same as that sailed by the larger craft, except that Buoy No.11 was not rounded. The voyage therefore was only eight nautical miles. The summary:

YACHTS RACE IN STRONG WIND

MIDSUMMER REGATTA OF AMER-ICAN YACHT CLUB.

Phryne Wins in 30-Foot Class -Several Yachts Disabled and Have to Withdraw -Hourt Loses a Man Overboard-Dorles With Boys as Crews Sall Short Course

The American Yacht Club held a very successful regatta on the Sound off Milton Point yesterday. It was the midsummer competition of the club and thirty yachts started. It was expected that some of the big sloops and schooners would be on hand. The Queen and Effort were ready to start, but had no competitors, and the 70 footers. but hid no competitors, and the 70 footers were absent. It was an ideal day for a yacht race. The wind was strong from the east There was a sting and snap to it. The waters of the Sound were rough, so that the small craft fell into the big holes and their bulls often were lost between two high banks of water.

The course selected by the committee, H. de B. Parsons, Joseph M. Macdonough and W. H. Caswell, was to Execution Rock, then to the spar buoy off Weeks Point and home. This was 9% miles. The 30 footers went twice around and the others once. It was a broad reach on the first leg, a beat on the second and a reach home. The 30 footers were sent and a reach home. The 30 looters were semiaway first and Phryne led across the line followed by Banzai. Dahinda, Atair, Alera, Cara Mia and Neola. Some set spinnakers for the first leg.

On the wind the Phryne held her lead, closely pressed by the Cara Mia, and near the weather mark the starboard spreader of the Cara Mia worked loose. Mr. Wainwright withdrew his yacht rather than take chances of losing a mast. The Banzia parted her jib halliards and she too withdrew. The times at the end of the first round were Phryne, 232-22: Neola, 2303-35: Dahinda, 2304-21- Atair, 2305-32; Alera, 2305-38. On the second round the wind was fresher and the sea rougher.
The yachts did not make quite as fast time as on the first. The Phryne held her lead to the finish and won the race with the Neola second and Dahinda third.
In the 27-foot class the Regina led from start to finish. She had to allow some time to the Firefly, but won the race with a good margin to spare. The Vaquero won from the Houri in the Larchmont 21-foot class.
The Houri parted her throat halliards, but finished the race. Just after crossing the finishing line in jibing a man was knocked overboard. He was in the water some minutes before he was rescued. The Houri then salled back to Larchmont.
Six raceabouts started, the Tartan winning, with the Rascal III. second. It was just the Tartan's weather and she sailed a fine race.
The Busy Bee parted her throat halliards and withdrew. In the 22 foot class the Mopsa, winner of the Brooklyn challenge cup this year, defeated the Ogeemah. The We Wean in Class R raced against the Ace and won by 2 minutes 59 seconds corrected time. The Rube had a sailover in the first division of the handicap class and the Huntress won in the second division.

Two of the American dories went out for a race. The Tautog, owned and sailed by George Fry, had Lemar Fleming, a boy about 10 years old, on board, and the Bug, owned and sailed by Arthur J. Cumnock had Willie Ferris as a orew. The committee sent these two over a short course insi

Tautog, George Fry. Bug, A. J. Cumnock. RECORD PUT OF 28 POUND STONE. That Is, if Weight Is Correct-Games of the A. O. H. at Celtic Park.

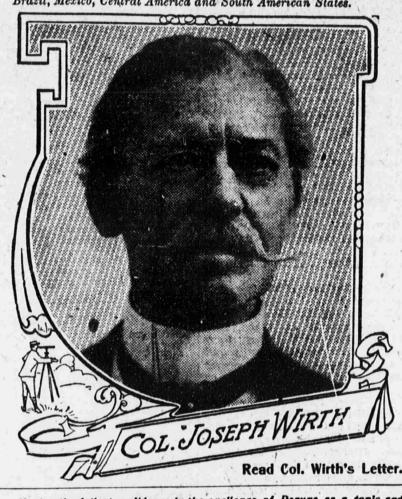

The Ancient Order of Hibernians began a two days carnival of athletic sports at Celtic Park yesterday, and a well arranged programme of events brought a big crowd of senior athletes together. One of the most notable contests of the day was putting the twenty-eight pound stone. Three of the foremost heavyweight men of the East were there-Flanagan, Sheridan and Horgan, but the contest was robbed of a lot of interest because it was a handicap. Flanagan held the American record for the game with a put of 34 feet 1/2 inch, yet the handicapper— Tam O'Brien—allowed him a start of three feet on Horgan, who was on scratch. Sheri dan had two feet.

Flanagan won, of course, with Sheridan second and Hor an third, but the latter was somewhat solaced by his put, which is a new world's record—provided the stone weighs fully twenty-eight pounds. The dis-

"Having the fullest confidence in the exclience of Peruna as a tonic and as a remedy for catarrhal troubles, as I can testify by my family's successful use of it, I have no hesitation in recommending the same to the public in general." --- Joseph Wirth.

(1818 G St., N. W., Washington, D. C.)

I^T is the confidence of the people in Peruna that sells Peruna. No advertising can make any medicine as popular as Peruna has become unless the medicine has some intrinsic All over the land men and women are recommending Peruna to each other.

They are doing this in spite of the prejudices against patent medicines, in spite of the physicians to the contrary. Pe-ru-na is Successful.

Rev. G. W. Goode, 219 Ross Street, Danville, Va., writes:

"Your treatment for catarrh has proved a success, and I find myself as well as before. There are no visible signs of the catarrh now. I can honestly recommend your treatment to all like sufferers. "I took six or eight bottles of Peruna according to advice. I think the cure is permanent, as I have taken no Peruna for more than a month."

When a medicine has once made a cure in a family no persuasion or argu-ment can overcome the confidence which such an experience inspires.

After a man or woman has tried many has consulted many doctors. (and still the disease lingers), and then has turned to Peruna as a last resort and realized immediate benefit and finally a lasting cure after such a thing has happened, a lasting faith in the virtue of the remedy is the result.

It ought to be so, too. The reputation of Peruna is built upon a solid founda-tion of public confidence.

People have tried it, been relieved by it and believe in it. This and this alone explains the universal popularity of Peruna as a family medicine.

Recommends Pe-ru-na. Mr. Chas. P. Bartholomew, 159 Halsey street, Brooklyn, N. Y., writes: "I take pleasure in recommending Peruna to any and all sufferers."

While this was the most remarkable match of the day in all respects, the fact that Karl Behr was forced throughout four sets by Irving C. Wright, the young brother of the national champion, amazed many of those who had looked to Behr to make a runaway match of it.

Young Wright was shrewd in his playing of the ball, alternating deep court with short-ening up on his strokes and then cutting the ball down at the net. In the first set he caught Behr off his feet repeatedly. He won this set and had the "comer" threatened throughout the remaining sets. Conditions were such as are rarely found here. EMPIRE TRACK RACES KEEN. Promise, Well Driven, Wins the Race for Class A A Trotters.

The ninth matinée of the New York Driving The nfifth matinee of the New York Driving Club at the Empire track yesterday did not develop any sensational events, as did the preceding meet. The time contests were eliminated and there was racing sport that was keen from start to finish.

Class A A trotting was one of the best contests seen at the track this season. Princess Pique, the winner last time, won the opening heat, then Patrick Ryan brought the General, 2:11%, to the wire a winner in a rousing finish. The third and fourth heats were won by Promise, 2:10, driven with the skill of a professional by A. E. Perren.

In Class A trotting James Butler, rode to his second victory of the afternoon when he won with the bay mare Bedelia in straight heats. Julia Barson was on her good behavior and won Class B, trotting in straight heats for Marcus Brookheimer.

Class A A pacing was hip and tuck from start to finish between Coast Marie, 2:11%, and Stonewall, 2:10%. The former won the deciding heat. Susie G, 2:14%, winner of the big cup last year, seems to be just rounding into form. She won Class A pacing, in fast time. It was her first winning performance this season.

BONIDREI WINS AGAIN.

Leading in the Contest for the Quincy Curs With Two Victories. MANCHESTER, Mass., Aug. 25.—The Bonidrei, owned by G. H. Wightman, sailed by Designer Crowninshield and representing the Boston Yacht Club, won to-day for the second time this week in the four cornered contest, for the Quincy cup, now held by the Manches-ter Yacht Club. The series stand in her favor. ter Yacht Club. The series stand in her favor, the Manchester and Chewink each having taken a race. The Auk, through her failure to win one of the first four races, is now out of the contest. She finished second in to-day's race. The boat represented the Quincy Yacht Club and is one of the three American yachts selected to defend the Roosevelt cup against the German Sonder class boats.

The race to-day was started in a nice easterly sailing breeze and the Bonidrel took the lead at once and held it to the finish. The boats were sent over a triangular course of 1e miles, the first leg being a beat, the second a close reach and the third a broad reach. The Bonidrel established a good lead, going to the first mark and gained steadily on her competitors on both the next legs. The wind dropped almost flat soon after the four yachts started and luck in finding the fresh wind first helped the Bonidrel to win. The Auk drifted fast, but was a long way behind at the finish. The summary:

Yacht and Owner.
Bonidrel, G. H. Wightman...
Auk, C. F. Adams, 2d.
Manchester, Dr. J. L. Bremer.
Chewink VII., F. G. Macomber...
